Lynn Winterboer, CBIP
Agile Analytics Coach & Educator
Winterboer Agile Analytics

Lynn Winterboer teaches and coaches DW/BI teams on how to effectively apply agile principles and practices to their work.

For 20 years, Ms. Winterboer has studied and applied Agile and BI, serving in numerous roles within the analytics, business intelligence and data warehousing space. She has worked in a variety of industries, including high-tech manufacturing and distribution, telecommunications, healthcare, insurance, banking, retail, education, and internet security. Lynn understands the unique set of challenges faced by DW/BI teams who want to benefit from the incremental styles of Agile and Lean development. She leverages her experience and training to help deliver practical solutions for her clients and students.

Clients have included Walmart, Intel, Capital One, Amgen, Abbott Vascular, Bank Rate Insurance, Cobank, Wells Fargo, Dairy Farmers of America, Sports Authority, Polycom, MXLogic (now McAfee), GE Access (now Avnet), McDATA (now Brocade), Level 3 Communications, Premera Blue Cross, SunPower, University of Denver Daniels College of Business, McKesson Health Solutions, and the State of Colorado.

Ms. Winterboer is a frequent speaker at industry conferences and teaches for The Data Warehousing Institute (TDWI) and The Cutter Consortium throughout North America and Europe.
